What did you discuss?	We watched the VMA (MTV Video Music Awards) and we all talked about it as a group.
What was the advice?	Notes from watching: Nicki Minaj's opening performance: Brazilian Carnival themed stage performance; costume designs remind me of the Carnivals in St Vincent with their colourful outfits. Taylor Swift joins in-between performance wearing flapper style costume. Miley Cyrus: worst cultural intimidator, trying to fit in with black and multi-cultural; wearing dreadlocks, twerking, smoking weed, chilling with Snoop Dog. Claimed as the most offensive. Nicki Minaj and Miley Cyrus argument: during acceptance speech, Nicki Minaj called out Miley for saying negative rumours about her in the press. Justin Bieber: performing his 'comeback' performance; cried on stage after his big finish (flying up into the arena); he cried because he felt emotional that he did it and pushed hard to get this far. Kanye West: Taylor Swift presenting him with the coveted Video Vanguard Award. Kanye makes a meaningful speech to get the crowd to agree with him, side with him; He's being meaningful but audience don't care about that, they just keep cheering for hi getting his award. He is trying to make those who hate him to like him just from his words-Capitalism!
What training or skills acquisition was suggested?
